

Reported misdiagnoses in a cohort of 18 patients with MPS VI¹

| Initial diagnosis | No. of patients |
|---|------------------------|
| Primary valvular heart disease | 7 |
| Mitral valve involvement | 5 |
| Mitral valve prolapse | 2 |
| Chronic rheumatic heart disease with mitral regurgitation | 2 |
| Congenital dysplastic mitral valve | 1 |
| Aortic valve involvement | 2 |
| Orthopedic disorders (Legg-Calvé-Perthes disease, congenital talipes equinovarus, spondyloepiphyseal dysplasia) | 4 |
| Another subtype of MPS | 1 |
| Unknown inborn error of metabolism with hydrops fetalis | 1 |

Abbreviation: MPS, mucopolysaccharidosis.

Reference: 1. Choy YS, Bhattacharya K, Balasubramaniam S, et al. Identifying the need for a multidisciplinary approach for early recognition of mucopolysaccharidosis VI (MPS VI).

Mol Genet Metab. 2015;115(1):41-47. doi:10.1016/j.ymgme.2015.03.005.